

Use of Copyrighted Materials Policy

The following information will help determine if you need to complete the Application to Use Copyrighted Materials.

You do not need permission to copy materials, and are not required to complete the application, if you wish to reproduce pages from The Critical Thinking Co.™ books that belong to you for use in a single classroom. Please note that in the case of parents and home educators, “classroom,” signifies a single household.

There is no limit to the number of copies, for a single classroom, that you may make. Any format is acceptable—paper copies; files scanned into a computer; overhead transparencies; Braille conversions; or placement on a class Website, provided that student and parent access is restricted to your single classroom. Please remember that it is a violation of your user agreement to share The Critical Thinking Co. materials with colleagues for use in additional classrooms. This also applies to home educators who are prohibited from sharing materials beyond their single household.

You do need permission, and will need to complete the application, if you wish to reproduce pages for inclusion in a curriculum guide, workshop manual, parent publication, home education sampler, or other publication. If permission is granted, The Critical Thinking Co. will request a small fee for use of the materials. The fee is based on the number of pages being reproduced and the number of copies you would like to make. After filling out the Application to Use Copyrighted Materials, we will provide you with a usage fee quote.

Payment of the usage fee should be made to The Critical Thinking Co. This fee will entitle you to use the materials as you have requested on a one-time basis, limited to the number of copies indicated.

The maximum quantity for which permission will be granted is 10 pages per title, for no more than 3 titles, not to exceed 100 copies. If your request exceeds the maximum quantities, or if you intend to sell the publication in question, you may be eligible for a licensing agreement. Please note this when filling out the Application to Use Copyrighted Materials.

Permission will not be granted for:

- grade-level, schoolwide, or district-wide reproduction.
- requests that are in excess of the quantities given above.
- titles in which the copyright states that it may not be reproduced (e.g. consumables).
- requests to post materials on any Website that is widely, or publicly, accessible.
- requests for resale of the materials.
