

The White Rose

die Weiße Rose

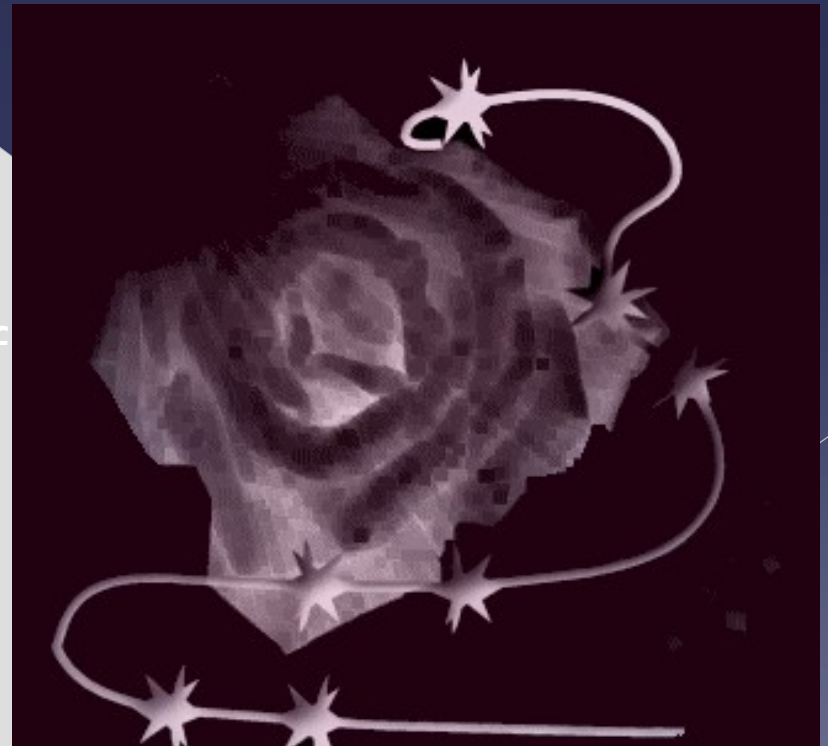

What was the White Rose?

- The White Rose was a non violent group of students from The University of Munich.
- The White Rose wrote leaflets about resisting Hitler and the Nazis.
- They wrote articles from June 1942 until February 1943.

Who Were the Members?

- The members were-
- Sophie and Hans Scholl
- Alex Schmorell
- Willi Graff
- Christoph Probst
- Traute Lafrenze
- Katharina Schueddekopf
- Lieselotte (Lilo) Berndt
- Falk Harnack
- Professor Kurt Huber

Sophie Scholl

- May 9, 1921-
February 22, 1943
- She was born in Forchtenberg.
- She had four other
siblings.
- To begin with Hans
would not let her join.

Hans Scholl

- September 22, 1918
–February 22, 1943
- He was born in Ingersheim, Germany
- He and other boys had fought in battle so he and Alex wrote about it in the leaflets.

Alex Schmorell

- ◉ September 16, 1917
–July 13 ,1943
- ◉ He was born in
Orenburg, Russia
- ◉ Most everyone wrote
at some point ,but he wrote lots of articles.

Christoph Probst

- ◉ November 6, 1919 - February 22, 1943
- ◉ He was born in Murnau am Staffelsee.
- ◉ He had one step-sister and a step-mother.
- ◉ He did not write any of the leaflets but did the design on the last one.

Professor Kurt Huber

- ◉ October 24, 1893– July 13, 1943
- ◉ He was born in Chur, Switzerland.
- ◉ He taught philosophy and musicology at the university.
- ◉ He wrote the last leaflet before they were caught.

Leaflets

- The White Rose printed only six leaflets.
- Four were under the name The White Rose and two were under the name Leaflets of Resistance.
- They created a great stir wherever they went.
- Anyone who received the leaflets were encouraged to pass them on.
- At the bottom of each leaflet they wrote:
- Please make as many copies of this leaflet as you can and distribute them.

How did the Leaflets get around?

- If the children were ever caught they would most certainly be killed. So how did they distribute the leaflets?
- They would put them in phone books
- They mailed them to professors and students.
- They also gave them to girls around the school to put in hallways in secret.
- Whenever someone received a pamphlet they were encouraged to pass it on.

Why did they do it?

- The children risked their lives to make the six leaflets. So what were they fighting for?
- Equal rights
- To get people to stand up and not be afraid
- Hitler and the Nazis

Did they do anything else?

- ◉ Now, obviously they did a lot. But that wasn't it.
- ◉ They went to 29 cities and spray-painted 'Freedom' and things like this on buildings.
- ◉ They also spray painted 'Freedom' on their school building.

My favorite quotes

- ◉ We will not be silent. We are your bad conscience. The White Rose will not leave you in peace!
- ◉ "He that holds his peace is wise, but he that speaks, speaks not for his own time."
- ◉ Nothing is so unworthy of a civilized nation as allowing itself to be "governed" without opposition by an irresponsible clique that has yielded to base instinct.

The Tragic End

- One day while distributing leaflets they were caught.
- Janitor Jakob Schmid
- Hans, Sophie, and Christoph were questioned but they did not reveal anything.
- They went on trial ,and they were sentenced to death by guillotine.

THEIR FINAL RESTING PLACE

Hans Scholl
1919-1943

Sophie Scholl
